

A young girl with a headscarf is shown from the chest up, holding a bright yellow cloth. She is looking slightly to the right with a thoughtful expression. The background is dark and textured.

NGOs

UNDER CHALLENGE

Dynamics and Drawbacks in Development

Edited by

FARHAD HOSSAIN • SUSANNA MYLLYLÄ

••• TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface / Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Department for International Development Cooperation / Christian Sundgren	5
Foreword	7
Professor Juha Vartola
Contributors	9
Acronyms and Abbreviations.....	11
1. Introduction.
Non-Governmental Organisations: In Search of Theory and Practice	13
Farhad Hossain & Susanna Myllylä
2. Changing Patterns of Development Co-operation: Conceptualising Non-Governmental Organisations in Development	22
Matti Mälkiä, & Farhad Hossain
3. Development for Whom? From Opportunist Organizations to People's Organizations	47
Susanna Myllylä
4. NGOs' Role at 'the End of History': Norwegian Policy and the New Paradigm	60
Terje Tvedt
5. NGOs and the Grassroot Base Local Government in Bangladesh: A Study of their Institutional Interactions	84
Salahuddin Aminuzzaman
6. Development in Nepal: Possibilities through Non-Governmental Organisations ..	105
Farhad Hossain
7. Disability in Civil Society and NGOs: Historical Responses and Current Developments in Anglophone Eastern and Southern Africa	126
M. Miles
8. NGOs and Disability Activities in Egypt	142
Alaa Shukrallah
9. Community Upgrading among the 'Zabbaleen' Garbage Collectors in Cairo	151
Susanna Myllylä
10. The BASE Movement and Its Role in the Process of Democratisation and Development in Nepal	164
Sigrun Eide Ødegaard

© 1998 Editors & authors

Uusimaa Oy 1998

ISBN 951-724-194-1